RCC investigating after alarm goes off on campus

- By: Isabela Lund

- 16 hrs ago

- 0

GRANTS PASS, Ore. -- Rogue Community college officials are investigating after an alarm went off at its Redwood/Grants Pass campus today.

RCC's public information officer, Kelly Gonzales said the alarm went off at about 3:17 p.m. Soon after, police checked the campus and an all-clear was given when it was determined there was no sign of threat.

Gonzales said RCC got the all-clear at about 3:49 p.m. They do not yet know the cause, and officials are investigating.

This is a developing story and NewsWatch 12 will update this article as more information becomes available.