RCC Celebrating Martin Luther King Jr. with Two Weekend Events in Grants Pass

Rogue Community College plans to celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., with two events over the next three days. RCC's Diversity Programming Board invites the public to reflect on their theme: "In Community."

A key component of Dr. King's philosophy of nonviolence was the creation of the Beloved Community, a vision for a society where everyone is care for and where poverty, hunger and hate are absent.

The sense of community and interconnectedness propelled the civil rights movement in the fight against injustice with a simple idea: We are Stronger Together.

In collaboration with Grants Pass Remembrance, Courageous Conversations and Grants Pass High School, RCC is sponsoring and participating in two events this MLK holiday weekend.

On Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at GPHS, there will be a Community Gathering Creative Presentation and Community Fair hosted by Grants Pass Remembrance.

On Monday at 6 p.m. at Newman United Methodist Church, there will be an MLK Celebration called "Inspiring Evening of Story and Song," with a reception to follow hosted by the RCC Diversity Programming Board. The keynote speaker is Dr. Geneva Craig, with the theme "Lead with Love."
