RCC Board of Education Set to Hold Work Session and Meeting in Grants Pass

The Rogue Community College Board of Education is scheduled to hold a work session followed by a meeting tomorrow evening.

Highlighting the 5 p.m. work session is an overview of the budget process and budget update presented by Lisa Stanton, RCC Vice President of Operations & Finance.

The regular meeting will start with an Audit Report Presentation and college reports from student government, the faculty association, the faculty senate and classified association.

There will also be reports from the RCC Board.

Action items include the first readings of 2025-26 Tuition Rates and Fees and a revised Board policy on the Prohibition of Harassment, plus RCC Board and President Team agreements. The Board is expected to adopt the 2023-24 Audit, a State of Oregon Action Plan Letter and a timeline for the RCC Budget Committee.

There will also be an Old Business session regarding Capital Projects and Funding Sources as well as an Executive Session pertaining to Labor Negotiations and Real Property Transactions.

Tuesday's work session and meeting will be held in Building H, Room 2, at the Redwood Campus in Grants Pass.
