RCC Theater Arts Back with "Two Gentlemen of Verona" Auditions Early Next Week

Theater Arts at Rogue Community College is back after a several-year absence.

The first production -- Amelia Roper's English translation of Shakespeare's Two Gentlemen of Verona -- will take place this spring.

Auditions will be held at RCC's Riverside Campus in Medford, with most rehearsals at the Table Rock Campus in White City and performances at the Redwood Campus in Grants Pass.

General auditions are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday of next week, with callbacks on Wednesday.

Signups for auditions are posted on the bulletin board in the Humanities Faculty Office at the Riverside Campus. Auditions will be conducted as a cold read and sides will be available to preview in the same office.

For more information, contact Alice Jordan in the RCC Humanities Department at (541)-956-7461.
